Dear Parent

We appreciate your interest in ASSET Question-A-Day and thank you for registering with AQAD.

The ASSET questions have been widely recognized for their ability to trigger the thinking process in children and to expose them to a fresh and unique way to check their own understanding of key concepts covered in the school curriculum. ASSET Question-A-Day (AQAD) are thought provoking questions that aim to make students more accustomed to skill-based questions on a regular basis.
